The WRI Ranch Horse Challenge

The WRI Ranch Horse Challenge will be held at each show, Spring Show, Summer Show, and National Show as a stand-alone competition, with a winner awarded at the end of each show.

Points will not accumulate across the season and there will be no end-of-year award for this challenge.

Divisions offered are: Open, Amateur, Novice Amateur, Youth, Novice Youth.

To be eligible for the WRI Ranch Horse Challenge award, exhibitors must enter and compete in all four ranch classes within the same division (Working Western Rail, Ranch Trail, Ranch Riding, and Ranch Conformation).

Riders must compete in the same division for all four classes; mixing divisions will make the exhibitor ineligible for the award.

Exciting news for all Novice Horse exhibitors!

This year we will be recognising the leading Novice Horse at every show, Spring, Summer, and National. Please note this is a stand-alone award at each show and is open to all novice horses competing in all WRI Novice Horse classes.

This award gives every Novice Horse the chance to shine, with points earned across all classes entered at the show. The horse accumulating the highest total of eligible points at each show will be named the WRI Leading Novice Horse of the show.
